

Energy Vocabulary Words — 4.P.3.1 and 3.2

Energy: the power needed to do something.

Light: something that makes things visible by illumination.

Heat: the condition of being hot.

Sound: vibrations sent through the air to your ears.

Electrical energy: turns energy from a battery into electricity.

Thermal energy: turns energy from a battery into heat.

Circuit: a path for electricity to flow.

Refract: the bending of light as it passes through an object.

Reflection: when light bounces off an object.

Absorb: when light creates another type of energy, usually heat.

Magnet: a piece of iron that is attracted to other iron.

Energy Vocabulary Words — 4.P.3.1 and 3.2

Energy: the power needed to do something.

Light: something that makes things visible by illumination.

Heat: the condition of being hot.

Sound: vibrations sent through the air to your ears.

Electrical energy: turns energy from a battery into electricity.

Thermal energy: turns energy from a battery into heat.

Circuit: a path for electricity to flow.

Refract: the bending of light as it passes through an object.

Reflection: when light bounces off an object.

Absorb: when light creates another type of energy, usually heat.

Magnet: a piece of iron that is attracted to other iron.